

Shuswap Theatre

The 2007/08 marks our 31st season and we hope to entertain, inspire and delight!

The enclosed brochure details our exciting Mainstage Season which begins with laughter on November 2nd when we present the opening performance of Kiss the Moon, Kiss the Sun. This Norm Foster play provides an emotionally charged rollercoaster of a story. The second comedic production is collectively written by five female Canadian playwrights. The Attic, The Pearls and Three Fine Girls explores the reunion of adult sisters who revisit their childhoods in the attic of their late parents' house. This excessive, funny, significant and moving story guarantees both laughter and tears. We conclude our 31st Mainstage Season with Dancock's Dance. Again Canadian, this hard hitting historical drama by Guy Vanderhaeghe delivers a story which effectively illustrates the resilience of the human spirit.

Don't miss your guaranteed opportunity to see all three Mainstage productions by purchasing Season Tickets right now!
